Saint Domingue – Folded Letters

1. FL 18th Sept. 1765, Mezin, France, to Fort Dauphin via Le Cap, first marking for Le Cap (Jamet #1 for Cap) in blue, marked 1 escalin due. Two page letter in French, can be read easily by one knowing French, appears to be personal at least in part. Item is clean and sound, has a water stain that does not detract. The town marking is quite legible and almost VF. (Web Photo) MB: $60.00/ $155.00
2. FL 26 February 1774 Bordeaux to Cayes via Jacmel, with 'IACMEL' town stamp, black, Jamet #1 for Jacmel and marked 2 1/2 escalines due. Two page letter in French, appears somewhat difficult to read and probably commercial. Quite clean and sound. The town marking is slightly under inked but quite visible. It is missing the E of IACMEL as is often the case for this marking. On the front is what appears to be a faint B in circle. Overall nearly VF. (Web Photo) MB: $40.00/ $50.00
3. FL 2 March 1764 St Marc to Leogane, returned, with St Marc town stamp, 'S MARC' in black, Jamet #1 for St. Marc, and manuscript 'renvoy' and 1Es (escalin). Contents 1 1/2 pages in French, probably commercial and probably difficult to read. Item is very clean and sound with possible ironed out fold. St. Marc town marking is quite nice; VF. (Web Photo) MB: $60.00/ $315.00
4. FL 13 July 1770 St. Louis to Cotteaux with St. Louis (south), 'S.LOUIS', town stamp, Jamet #1 for St. Louis, and 1e1/2 due marking. Late date for this. Contents 1 page in French, probably commercial and probably easy to read. Item is clean and sound except for vertical and horizontal file folds that do not really detract. Town marking for St. Louis is quite nice. Item is almost VF. (Web Photo) MB: $60.00/ $215.00
5. FL, first page with date and origin missing, Jamet #3 town marking for Port au Prince, to Montrouit, manuscript 'renvoi' and 2 escalins due. Letter was charged double rate? Contains 2 1/2 pages in French, probably not too difficult to read. Nice strike of this somewhat crude marking for Port au Prince. The item is clean and sound and VF. (Web Photo) MB: $50.00/ $355.00
6. FL, 9 February 1770 St. Marc to Le Cap with St. Marc town stamp Jamet #4, and 1 es due. Contents 1 page in French easily read. Item is unusually clean, sound, and neat and the St. Mark town stamp is bold and clear. Altogether a very fine item. (Web Photo) MB: $75.00/ $405.00
7. FL 22 October 1802 General Morpas to General Thouvenot at Port de Paix, free on the seal of General Morpas. A short letter in French on military stationary, quite legible, Item is clean and sound and VF. The strike of the seal is about good. General Leclerc died of yellow fever less than two weeks later. (Web Photo) MB: $75.00/ $140.00

8. FL Ship letter Le Cap 17 January 1803 to Bordeaux with vf strike of the large 'POSTE MARITIME BORDEAUX', Salles Vol.1 #21 and due marking 2 (decimes). Contents are a 1 page letter in French, legible, and probably mainly commercial. Item is clean and sound and except for a horizontal file fold VF.

(Web Photo)

MB: $30.00/ $255.00

9. FL Ship letter Port au Prince 14 May 1803 to Bordeaux with St Malo entry marking, Salles Vol 1 #52 and due marking 8 (decimes). A one page letter in French, apparently personal, Item has slight soiling and a horizontal file fold, otherwise VF.

MB: $30.00/ $100.00

10. FL 22 September 1802, General Rochambeau at Leogane to General Salance at Acquin, free on manuscript "Dn Rochambeau". Letter is sound and quite clean with a small (about 1 cm) tear not seriously affecting front or contents, on military stationary and signed "Dn Rochambeau". One page plus in French, quite legible. Almost VF. (Web Photo)

MB: $75.00/ $215.00

11. FL Port au Prince to London by British packet. VF strike of the large JACMEL in double circle marking July 9 1848, London receiving August 5, and manuscript due 2/4. Letter is in German, 1 page, and probably difficult to read. Item has slight soiling overall and file folds, 1 horizontal 1 vertical, slightly affecting markings. Condition otherwise is sound and about fine. Second item is a cover sheet only with a somewhat faint but legible strike of the large JACMEL marking 28 May 1858, addressed to Havre. British arrival marking and French arrival and transit markings on back, all nicely visible. On front, 8 (decimes due), manuscript style handstamp. File folds not seriously affecting condition

MB: $15.00/ $70.00

12. Two FL to France, one 26 September 1864 Port au Prince to Marseille, small 'A JACMEL' 26 September 1864 on back, and 'GB 1F60C' on front, charged 8 decimes due. Letter is in French. Item is slightly soiled overall and has a horizontal file fold not affecting markings. Overall about fine. Second is a FL Gonaives 24 July 1866 to Bordeaux. Small A Jacmel marking dated July 25 1866, and GB1F60C and 20 decimes due on front (double rate). Contents in French in a very neat hand. Somewhat frail and faded and overall about good to fine.

MB: $5.00/ $35.00

13. Two internal FL, one Cap Haitien 9 May 1855 to Port au Prince, the second Jacmel 21 April 1863, the first with a faint but legible strike of the double circle CAP-HAITIEN marking, the second with a faint but legible strike of the large JACMEL double circle marking. The first has contents in French but quite faded. The second also in French and legible. Both letters are marked on front "pr poste". Both about fine.

MB: $10.00/ $20.00

Book Lots

14. Mackenzie, Charles "Notes on Haiti", two volumes published 1830. Mackenzie was the first British Ambassador to the Republic of Haiti and served in that post during the years 1826 and 1827. Volume 1 describes his experiences during nearly two years of travel about the country. The second volume is a history of Haiti to 1826 followed by sections on the current state of government, agriculture, commerce, and military of the country. An interesting first hand account. Very fine condition considering its age.

MB: $50.00/ $230.00

15. St. Johns, Sir Spencer, "Hayti or the Black Republic", by the British Ambassador to Haiti for about a dozen years beginning in 1863. Commentary on Haiti written from notes collected over the last seven years of his residence there, and a history of the country to the election of President Salomon. There are chapters on various topics such as Government, Military, Population, Commerce, etc. Published in 1884 and probably with the original binding. F to VF condition.

MB: $40.00/ $155.00

16. Stoddard, F. Lathrop, "The French Revolution in St. Domingue", one of the standard references on Haiti written by a Harvard educated historian. Published in 1914, and in quite fine condition, it appears not to have seen much use over the years. The history covers conditions leading to revolution and the revolution itself to the final evacuation of the French and the aftermath. Fine to VF condition. good.

MB: $35.00/ $110.00

17. Griggs and Frator Editors, "Henry Christophe and Thomas Clarkson, a Correspondence", letters and documents from the time of the regency of Christophe translated into English. Interesting insight into Christophe and his government as King Henry I. Published 1952, VF condition.
